Duda Farm Fresh Foods Citrus

For nearly half a century Duda Farm Fresh Foods has been growing, shipping and marketing fresh citrus products cultivating 16,500 acres of citrus acreage domestically and collaborating with international partners to provide a year-round supply of fresh citrus.

Our citrus product line includes:

- Clementines/Citrines
- Oranges/Navels
- Minneola Tangelos
- Grapefruits
- Tangerines
- Lemons
- Meyer Lemons

What differentiates us as a citrus grower and shipper:

- We partner with a variety of citrus growers in the United States and eight international growers to provide a year-round supply of fresh citrus to retail and foodservice establishments.
- We are the second largest shipper of conventional California Clementines in the United States.
- We are the largest shipper of organic California Clementines in the United States.
- We are the largest shipper of Meyer Lemons in the United States.
- We are the second largest importer of Mexican lemons in the United States.

The Duda Farm Fresh Foods Advantage:

- We have a lengthy history growing tangerines in Florida.
- Our citrus products have superior quality and flavor.
- Our proprietary varietal sequence allows for the right product at the right time.
- We guarantee that the products our customers receive were picked less than 14 days prior to shipping, to ensure high quality.

Five adjectives that describe our citrus products:

1. Sweet
2. Juicy
3. Fresh
4. Vibrant colors
5. Loved by consumers
